Description:

The Fire Outside My Window: A Survivor Tells the True Story of Californias Epic Cedar Fire is both a poignant memoir and a veteran journalists narrative nonfiction account of a catastrophic event that crippled postcard-perfect San Diego and dominated international headlines in October 2003. Author Sandra Millers Youngers miraculous saga of escape, ruin and renewal unifies a tapestry of experiences woven from more than 100 interviews with firefighters, survivors and the families of those who died. The fire itself, one of the biggest and most destructive in California history, is the main character in this epic story--a rampaging monster, framed within historical context, battled by understaffed, under-equipped firefighters, and confronted from the rare perspective of terrified civilians caught in its path. Timing, location and weather conspired against air tankers, fire engines and bulldozers, enabling a lost hunters signal fire to gather strength in the mountains east of San Diego. Overnight, a swelling wind sent flames galloping toward the Pacific, killing 15 people, 12 of them the authors neighbors; incinerating more than 2,200 homes, including hers; and creating a moonscape 20 times the size of Manhattan. In this revealing narrative, Younger takes readers into the heart of an epic firefight, telling the stories of fire chiefs and air tanker pilots trying to combat a catastrophe bigger than they had ever imagined, and recounting both survivors and victims desperate efforts to escape flames moving faster than fire engines could drive. The Fire Outside My Window is a riveting and nuanced tale that captures the intensity of a runaway wildfire, honors those lost to its fury, and celebrates the human spirits innate capacity to triumph over adversity.

I just got my copy of The Fire Outside my Window over the weekend, and I couldn't put it down. I kept thumbing over to the photos (I've got the physical copy) to see what was what. The story of bobcat is as haunting and exhilarating as anything I've ever read. My heart pounded through much of the book, as Younger does an excellent job of painting the picture of normalcy, then crisis, and then return to normalcy. The people who fight these fires are awesome heroes. Sandra Younger does a tremendous job of making you feel the heat, and weighing all the what would I have done? What would I do if it were me? choices we should all be thinking about. One of my top reads of the year!
